Each year, Rolling V drivers are responsible for the safe transportation of more than 7,000 school children. The GreenRoad driver performance service became part of Rolling V's programming in 2009 as a way to reinforce passenger transportation drivers' safety processes and awareness. Since the program's launch, Rolling V has experienced positive results and responses from its drivers.

"GreenRoad's Fleet Elite celebrates and motivates our safest drivers," said Nicole Dungey, Rolling V safety director. "It's important to Rolling V that our drivers go above and beyond when it comes to the security of our passengers. Through this program, we are able to commend drivers who are leaders in safety while encouraging others to follow suit."

In its passenger transportation program and beyond, Rolling V demonstrates that safety is a core company value. In recent years, the Rolling V Maintenance Department has consistently ranked in the top 10 percent of New York carriers by the New York State Department of Transportation.

"Throughout every branch of Rolling V, our drivers understand that the safety of the people we serve comes first at all times," added Vallone. "By having our priorities straight, we challenge our hard-working team to be their best every day, and ensure we provide trusted services year after year."
